

117TH CONGRESS
2D SESSION

H. R. 6528

To require owners of covered federally assisted rental dwelling units to install temperature sensors in such units, and for other purposes.

---

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

JANUARY 28, 2022

Mr. TORRES of New York introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on Financial Services

---

A BILL

To require owners of covered federally assisted rental dwelling units to install temperature sensors in such units, and for other purposes.

1       Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2       tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3       SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4       This Act may be cited as the “Housing Temperature
5       Safety Act of 2022”.

6       SEC. 2. TEMPERATURE SENSORS.

7       (a) INSTALLATION AND MAINTENANCE.—

8           (1) IN GENERAL.—Each owner of a covered
9       federally assisted rental dwelling unit shall, not later 10       than 1 year after the date of the enactment of this

1       Act, ensure that, at all times pursuant to paragraph 2       (2), such temperature sensors are installed and 3       maintained in accordance with the rule issued by the 4       Secretary under paragraph (3) on each level of such 5       dwelling unit owned by such owner.

6                 (2) RULEMAKING.—The Secretary shall, not 7       later than 180 days after the date of the enactment
8       of this Act, issue a rule that establishes standards
9       and requirements for the installation and mainte-10      nance of temperature sensors in covered federally as-11      sisted rental dwelling units.

12                 (b) DATA REPORTING.—

13                         (1) IN GENERAL.—Each owner of a covered
14       federally assisted rental dwelling unit shall, 6 times 15       each day, collect data from temperature sensors in-16       stalled pursuant to subsection (a) and such data
17       shall include the temperature recorded during each
18       temperature reading and the time and date of each 19       temperature reading.

20                         (2) GUIDANCE.—The Secretary shall, not later 21       than 180 days after the date of the enactment of 22       this Act, publish guidance with respect to—

23                                 (A) the collection of temperature sensor 24       data by owners of covered federally assisted

1       rental dwelling units, including the protection of 2       personally identifiable information;

3               (B) the retention of such data by such 4       owners for not less than 2 years; and

5               (C) the reporting of such data to the Sec-
6       retary unless a tenant of the covered federally 7       assisted dwelling unit has opted out of having 8       such data reported by the owner to the Sec-
9       retary.

10      (c) REPORT.—Not later than one year after the date
11     of the enactment of this Act, and each year thereafter, 12     the Secretary shall submit a report to the Congress that—

13               (1) describes the status of the implementation 14     of subsection (a), and includes—

15                       (A) the percentage of covered federally as-16       sisted dwelling units without a temperature sen-
17       sor pursuant to subsection (b);

18                       (B) the percentage of temperature sensors
19       that have been installed by owners of covered 20       federally assisted dwelling units; and

21                       (C) the number of fatalities that occurred 22       due to fire, hypothermia, heat exhaustion, and 23       other temperature-related causes in covered
24       dwelling units and whether a temperature sen-25       sor was present in such dwelling unit; and

1                         (2) discloses the results of data collection insti-
2                         tuted by the Secretary of Housing and Urban Devel-
3                         opment before the date of the enactment of this Act
4                         to determine the prevalence of temperature sensors
5                         in covered federally assisted dwelling units.

6                         (d) RELATION TO STATE LAW.—This section does 7                         not annul, alter, or affect, or exempt any person subject 8                         to the provisions of this section from complying with, the 9                         laws of any State with respect to installing or maintaining 10                        temperature sensors, except to the extent that those laws 11                        are inconsistent with any provision of this section, and 12                        then only to the extent of the inconsistency. The Secretary 13                        is authorized to determine whether such inconsistencies
14                        exist and may not determine that any State law is incon-
15                        sistent with any provision of this section if the Secretary 16                        determines that such law provides for greater protection 17                        or safety.

18                         (e) DEFINITIONS.—For the purposes of this Act:

19                         (1) ASSISTANCE.—The term “assistance”
20                         means any grant, loan, subsidy, contract, cooperative 21                         agreement, or other form of financial assistance, but 22                         such term does not include the insurance or guar-23                         antee of a loan, mortgage, or pool of loans or mort-24                         gages.

1                             (2) TEMPERATURE SENSOR.—The term “tem-
2                             perature sensor” means an internet capable tem-
3                             perature reporting device able to track the ambient 4                             air temperature to the tenth degree Fahrenheit and 5                             Celsius.

6                             (3) COVERED FEDERALLY ASSISTED HOUS-
7                             ING.—The term “covered federally assisted rental 8                             dwelling unit” means a residential dwelling unit that 9                             is made available for rental and for which assistance 10                            is provided, or that is part of a housing project for 11                            which assistance is provided, under—

12                                 (A) the public housing program under the 13                             United States Housing Act of 1937 (42 U.S.C.
14                             1437 et seq.);

15                                 (B) the programs for rental assistance
16                             under section 8 of the United States Housing 17                             Act of 1937 (42 U.S.C. 1437f), including—

18                                     (i) the program for project-based rent-19                             al assistance; and

20                                     (ii) the program for tenant-based 21                             rental assistance;

22                                 (C) the AIDS Housing Opportunities pro-
23                             gram under subtitle D of title VIII of the Cran-
24                             ston-Gonzalez National Affordable Housing Act
25                             (42 U.S.C. 12901 et seq.);

1                             (D) the program for supportive housing for 2                             the elderly under section 202 of the Housing 3                             Act of 1959 (12 U.S.C. 1701q); or

4                             (E) the program for supportive housing for 5                             persons with disabilities under section 811 of 6                             the Cranston-Gonzalez National Affordable 7                             Housing Act (42 U.S.C. 8013); and

8                             (F) the programs under sections 514, 515,
9                             and 516 of the Housing Act of 1949.

10                         (4) OWNER.—The term “owner” means, with 11                             respect to a covered federally assisted rental dwelling 12                             unit, any private person or entity, including a coop-
13                             erative, an agency of the Federal Government, or a 14                             public housing agency, having the legal right to lease 15                             or sublease dwelling units.

16                         (5) SECRETARY.—The term “Secretary” means
17                             the Secretary of Housing and Urban Development.

18                         (f) AUTHORIZATION OF APPROPRIATIONS.—There is 19                             authorized to be appropriated such sums as are necessary
20                             to carry out this Act.

